Style and Substance

If she were not so busy, Gale Maly could write the book on the art of multi-tasking, and how to pull it off with élan and style. The chapters on how chance encounters, hands-on quality control, and an "I can do that and do it so much better" spirit, enabled her to succeed in previously male-dominated industries, would make good reading. What is remarkable about her story is that she appears to be having so much fun doing it.

A spark of inspiration while having dinner with her young daughters led to her first business venture in 1982 providing shopping center maintenance for thirteen properties. With no previous experience in the industry, but equipped with innate confidence and industrial strength high standards for herself and for those whom she employs, Gale went into high gear. Today the dynamic businesswoman oversees three divisions: Maly Construction, Maly & Associates, Tucson's premier facilities maintenance company, and Maly Pest Control, Inc.

By diversifying her company, Maly & Associates is in a unique position to offer clients a full range of services. "We can do anything from new construction to handyman services to property management," she says. "I love Tucson and the lifestyle it offers. My passion is making things happen and making people happy so they can fulfill their dreams and enjoy this wonderful community."

Gale's exacting attention to every detail led her to seek her contractor and real estate licenses to better serve her clients. "When I commit to a job, I want it to be perfect," she explains. "As a real estate agent, I can be directly involved in the purchase of a property. As a general contractor, I can ensure that any remodel exceeds my clients' expectations. I love taking on the new challenge of a property or project and bringing out its hidden potential."

After 30 years, Maly & Associates' reputation is Marigale Maly's reputation, and she measures its success by "Seeing the smile of satisfaction on a customer's face...it is one of the favorite parts of my job."
